CYFD Children's Behavioral Health and Community Based Services

Resource Manual July 2005

The Children Youth and Families Department, Prevention and Intervention Division, Children's Behavioral Health and Community Services Bureau, has developed this Resource Manual listing providers, services and geographic areas for children's behavioral health services, forensic services and domestic violence services. This manual links local providers to specific target populations and the communities they serve.

It is our hope that this manual will help to inform agencies, both governmental and private about available behavioral health services for children, youth, individuals and their families throughout New Mexico.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are dedicated to enhancing the safety, dignity and well-being of children, youth and families in New Mexico.

We protect children and adults from abuse, neglect and exploitation; we hold juveniles accountable for their actions and rehabilitate them; and we seek to prevent abuse, reduce juvenile crime, promote quality child care and support healthy families.

Value Statement:

We maintain professional and high ethical conduct by a commitment to our values: integrity, commitment, caring, accountability, respect and excellence.

Goal:

Provide the right services to the right client at the right time.

COMMUNITY BASED SERVICES

The Community Services Section is in the Children's Behavioral Health and Community Services Bureau in the Prevention and Intervention Division. The section utilizes state and federal funds to develop and maintain a statewide, coordinated, comprehensive service delivery system that is:

- , Flexible and designed to meet the needs of clients at the local level;
- , Inclusive of and responsive to the ethnic, cultural, racial and socioeconomic diversity of the state;
- , Focused on results with clearly defined and measurable outcomes for the clients served.

The goal of these community-based services is to improve and enhance the emotional, mental and behavioral health of the children, youth and families in the targeted populations.

Children's Behavioral Health Services

TARGET POPULATIONS

Six (6) target populations to be served through the Children's Behavioral Health community-based services are identified and defined by Children, Youth and Families Department (CYFD) as follows:

1. Children (and their families) referred by or involved with CYFD Protective Services Division (PSD) and/or Juvenile Justice Division (JJD) and/or Tribal Social Services. Children involved with PSD, JJD or Tribal Services may receive services up to the age of twenty-one (21).

"Referred by" means children, youth and families who have been formally referred by the county protective services office or the juvenile probation/parole office or Tribal social Services. "Involved with" means individuals and families who have an open case with PSD or JJD and/or Tribal Social Services.

2. Families in Need of Services (FINS) as defined by New Mexico State Statute, Children's Code.
3. Children, under the age of eighteen (18), (and their families) at high risk for entry into CYFD's Protective Services or Juvenile Justice System. The following are contributing factors that define the population at high risk of entering into the CYFD system.

$ Severe emotional, behavioral or neurobiological disorders or problems; or at risk of developing severe emotional/behavioral/neurobiological problems or disorders;

$ Intention/plan to hurt self or other(s) as evidenced by written, verbal and/or behavioral indicators;

$ Child or parent suicide attempt during the past year;

$ Substance abusing behaviors by child or their parents;

$ Multiple delinquent acts or law enforcement contacts by child;

$ Multiple school problems, including suspension or expulsion from school during last year;

$ Homeless/runaway;

$ Child or parent with mental illness;

$ Parent who is incarcerated, involved with the criminal justice system, or on parole or probation;

$ Physical, sexual, emotional abuse or neglect of the child (current or known history);

$ Multi-generational history of familial maltreatment, neglect or abuse;

$ Involvement in a teen pregnancy during past year (or) a teen parent;

$ Child/youth experiencing cultural, sexual and/or gender identity issues;
$ Witness (or participant) to violence in the home, school, or community;
$ New or shifting family situations/environments that cause psychological distress, stressful family situations and/or individual/family dysfunction;
$ Death of a family member or close friend during the past year.

4. Early Intervention - Children and youth, birth through twelve (12) years of age, who are diagnosed with or who are "at risk of developing" a serious emotional or behavioral disorder (SED) or Neurobiological Disorder (NBD) and their families.
5. Behavioral Health Respite - Children and youth, under nineteen (19) years of age, diagnosed with a serious emotional, behavioral or a neurobiological disorder as defined by the DSM IV. In order to receive services, the condition must be persistent and have existed for at least one year or is likely to endure for one year or longer. The family cannot receive services for respite care under this contract if eligible for respite care services under any other service delivery system.
6. Clients in need of forensic services as defined Children's Behavioral Health Services Definition Manual.
