CYFD Local Offices Plan Child Abuse Prevention Month Activities
April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month

SANTA FE – The New Mexico Children, Youth & Families Department is proud to participate in April Child Abuse Prevention Month with local, COVID-safe events happening statewide. The theme for this year’s Child Abuse Prevention Month is Thriving Families to emphasize stronger support systems for entire families. Local offices are participating in a wide array of events and activities to help community members spot and report neglect and abuse and provide information on becoming a resource family to care for children when they cannot safely remain at home.

Planned events by county include:

Quay/Harding/DeBaca, April 10, 2021

- In-person class at the Fire Dept. taught by EMTs on how to recognize child abuse and mandated reporting.
- Pens with blue ribbons were sent out to faculty and staff at area schools.

San Miguel County, April 14, 2021, 10:00am-3:00pm

- Informational gathering with provider Kids Counseling and JPPO joining in. There will be a table set up with PullTogether goodies, and recruitment of foster parents.

Colfax/Union, April 14-30, 2021 (every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday)

- Posting on office Facebook page, sharing child abuse prevention/awareness memes/posts. Every Wednesday sharing NM resources for kinship guardianship, becoming a resource parent, and about Reach NM.
- Working with local grocery store to set up an informational table where goodies will be handed out.
- Create information packets to bring to schools alongside extra backpacks that were donated.
Otero County, April 17, 2021

- Participating in a drive through event with the Public Schools. A table will be set up and CYFD/Pull Together goodies/materials will be handed out.

San Juan County, April 17, 2021, 9:00 am

- Teaming up with Desert View to host a booth outside and a Child Abuse Prevention Walk.

Torrance County, April 17, 2020:

- Setting up a booth at the Torrance County job fair.
- GHOST Unit from Bernalillo County coming to end of the month all staff meeting to review sex trafficking training with staff.

Dona Ana County, April 18 – 24, 2021 (also Crimes Victims’ Rights Week)

- Collaboration with the DA’s office and community provider FYI. Staff will connect with community providers in-person to educate and provide information on Child Abuse Prevention, services offered through FYI and information from the DA’s office on Victim’s Assistance. Liaisons will reach out to schools with presentations, pamphlets, pens, bags, etc.

Chaves County, April 19, 2021, 3:00pm-5:00pm

- Partnering with CASA for a drive thru child abuse awareness rally.

Socorro/Sierra County, April 22-23, 2021

- Hand out flyers, county resource lists, CYFD goodies, and Puerto Seguro food baskets.

Luna/Hidalgo County, April 24, 2021, 10:00am

- Driving parade event with FYI, CASA, and Early Intervention.

Bernalillo County, Office #4, April 28, 2021

- Partnered with provider Las Cumbres to hand out backpacks and diaper bags at the PineTree Children’s Wellness Center.

Cibola County

- Mailing out blue ribbons and flyers to local organizations around the county. Making and providing blue ribbon wreaths to distribute to partners in the community to display.

Grant County

- Doing a proclamation with the Mayor, in addition to working with two agencies to do a virtual Town Hall panel.

Valencia County
• Presentation from Isleta Pueblo on cultural humility that will include procedures for when they receive a case.
• Tie One to End Abuse online event where participants will wear a tie and make a sign saying, “one way we can end child abuse” for social media.

Sandoval County

• Making goodie bags with PullTogether items and signed cards to take to local schools.

McKinley County:

• Setting up a table outside the office and handing out goodie bags with facts about child abuse in NM.
