Transition Services

Intensive care coordination...

*...for clients exiting CYFD
Juvenile Justice Facilities...*

... to actively promote their successful return to the community

Our Purpose...

- Prepare committed JJS client for re-entry into their communities.
- Work collaboratively with the client, their families, JJS facility staff, juvenile probation officers, community providers and natural supports.
- Establish the necessary linkages and partnerships with the full range of public and private sector agencies and natural supports.
- Support delivery of comprehensive services across multiple domains.
- Continue to promote thoughtful, responsive and creative “wraparound” services to meet the diverse needs of the young people and their families.
- Support client leadership and advocacy development.

Client may choose to continue with their Transition Services Coordinator beyond their supervised release period & to age 21

What does the Transition Services Coordinator do?

Transition Services Coordinators offer empowering client-centered support to client and their family by facilitating their choice, access to and engagement with New Mexico’s system of care.

- Caseload Average: 10-15 client
- Engages the client and their family soon after admission to a CYFD facility
- Develops a helpful alliance with the client and their family to identify and respond to needs
- Partners with client, families, JJS facility staff, juvenile probation officers, and other team members in transition plan development
- Identifies and supports access to and engagement with community providers
- Administers emergency wraparound funds to support transition related needs

Family Inclusion

(Even if client is not returning home to family)

- Collaboratively conducts Home Studies with JPO staff.
- Participates in Home Visits with families.
- Encourages family/client participation and input at team meetings.
- Utilizes teleconferencing to increase family inclusion.
